Take advantage of a great opportunity to sell to your customers the finest art glass publication in the world. Beautifully designed and printed, World Art Glass Quarterly is published four times a year. It is rich in color and detail, showcasing the art glass of well established artists as well as up and coming artists. The quality of the publication is unparalleled and you will be proud to display it in your business. Far from being a disposable magazine, the quarterlies are longstanding, permanent displays of art glass, ideas and information. Readers will collect and use them for future reference for years to come.

World Art Glass Quarterly will benefit your business. Only manufacturers, art galleries and artists can advertise in the publication so there is no conflict of interest to your business from other retail outlets and distributors. It will serve as a resource of manufacturers, art galleries, collectors and artists and will be of great interest to a wide range of readers. Your customers will enjoy reading about the artists, their work and the techniques they use to create their art. The articles are insightful and entertaining, focusing on the innovation and inspiration of the artists and their ideas. The artwork is beautifully displayed and is uniquely photographed. The creativity of the artist and their work are the foundation of the publication. Visit our website, www.artglassquarterly.com, to see the many featured artists and articles.

We would also like you to be involved by giving us suggestions for the Quarterly. We are committed to producing a magazine that will inspire your customers to do more and better pieces of art - and in turn will make them better customers.
